

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WISCONSIN VOTERS ALLIANCE, et al.,

Civil Action No. 20-3791 (JEB)

Plaintiffs,

v.

NOTICE OF FILING OF PROOFS
OF SERVICE

VICE PRESIDENT MICHAEL R.
PENCE, et al.,

Defendants.

The December 23, 2020 Minute Order (“[a]s soon as Plaintiffs file proof of service on all defendants...”) required filing proof of service on “all” defendants before a briefing schedule and hearing date would be set for the motion for preliminary injunction. Accordingly, counsel of record intended to file proofs of service after all the defendants were served—in order that the briefing schedule and hearing date would be set. As such, efforts were immediately made to affect service on all named Defendants.

Below is the chart reflecting proofs of service to date, affidavits of which have been filed. The attached document reflects that all parties were noticed via United States Postal Service (certified, express mail) on December 22, 2020. As to personal service, under the governing Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, all parties, except one individual in Arizona and one individual in Wisconsin, have been served. Due to COVID-19 protocols, closed government office buildings and difficulties reaching people over the holiday season, some governmental Defendants were more difficult to complete service on than others. However, some governmental Defendants, but not all, were willing to waive service as set forth in the below chart and accompanying proofs of service.
